1 DIVISION, SIN AND FORGIVENESS

Mungaila and Masauso were brothers. When the two brothers finished school, each of them was given a piece of land by their father to develop. Mungaila, the elder brother, was a hardworking person and developed his land very well. He built a good house out of the profits from his projects he was doing on his land. However, Masauso the younger brother, was a very lazy person and used to drink alcohol a lot. There was nothing he had done on his piece land for a number of years.

Masauso came to hate his elder brother. He wished everything at his brother's place could belong to him. He became jealous of his brother's progress and decided to attack him. One night, Masauso went to his brother's home at midnight. He knocked at the door and his brother asked who was there. "Come outside my brother, there is an emergency!", Masauso lied to his brother. Mungaila opened the door.

"Brother, what is the emergency? What has happened?" he asked. Before he could finish the sentence, he was hit on the forehead with a metal rod by his brother Masauso. Mungaila fell down and fainted. Masauso left the brother lying on the ground half dead.

When Mungaila gained consciousness, he went and told his father what had happened. The father took him to hospital for treatment where he was admitted until he was well again. For a long period of time, the two brothers could not talk to each other. Their father got concerned and decided to reconcile them. When he asked why Masauso did that to his elder brother, he replied that he was not happy with the progress his brother was making.

The father talked to the two brothers and encouraged them to love each other and maintain peace. He told Masauso to stop having feelings of jealousy towards his brother's progress and instead, encouraged him to work hard. Mungaila was asked to forgive his brother. Today, the two brothers are living in harmony and unity and are both working hard for their living.
