CIGAWO COYAMBA – KUMASULIRA [20]

Yankhani mafunso onse mcigawo ici.

1 Tembenuzani M'cinyanja cabwino nkhani iri munsimu.

THE END OF SLAVERY

The captives knelt down in their way of expressing thanks, clapped their hands with great energy. They were thus left entirely in our hands and knives were soon busy at work, cutting loose the women and children. It was more difficult to free the men, as each had his neck in the fork of a stick and kept in by an iron rod which was riveted at both ends across the throat. With a saw luckily in the Bishop's baggage one by one the men were sawn out into freedom. The women on being told to take the meal they were carrying and cooked breakfast for themselves, men, women and children seemed to consider the news too good to be true.

CIGAWO CACIWIRI – MVETSO [30]
